

Why support

Mount St. Mary's Seminary & School of Theology?

“Without spiritual and material help MTSM cannot achieve its goal of forming men to be future shepherds and leaders of the ecclesiastic community. Good future priests require good formation. And good formation, at least in part, requires prayers and financial help on the part of the people of God.”

Paolo Degasperi

IV Theology, Diocese of Fort Wayne- South Bend

“As future shepherds, we assume the charge to be prepared for our future ministry. This would not be possible without our donor’s generous sacrifices to promote and underwrite our education.”

Leonardo Morales-Salas

III Theology, Diocese of Tulsa

“I am grateful for the generous benefactors who freely give of their own treasure to support the raising of men as future priests. Oftentimes they don’t even know us, but out of love for the Church, they trust in God’s call and guidance of his ministers.”

Br. Michael French

III Theology, Fathers of Mercy

“Seminarists are, in a very special way, the future and hope of the Church.”

~ St. John Paul II

“Very simply, our donors inspire me! Their generosity is a sign of God’s never-ending Providence and a good reminder of the incomparable privilege it is to be Catholic.”

Ethan Hoying

III Theology, Diocese of Cincinnati
